

HR Policy - Leave

Purpose

This policy outlines employee entitlements to leave and the procedures for requesting time off.

It ensures fairness and consistency in managing employee absences.

Types of Leave

Annual Leave: Employees are entitled to a fixed number of paid leave days per year.

Sick Leave: Granted when employees are unwell and unable to work.

Casual Leave: For personal matters requiring short-term absence.

Maternity/Paternity Leave: Provided as per applicable laws.

Leave Application Process

Employees must apply for leave through the official system.

Leave requests should be submitted in advance whenever possible.

Managers will review requests based on workload and team availability.

Emergency Leave

In case of unforeseen situations, employees should inform their manager immediately.

Supporting documents may be required depending on the situation.

Leave Misuse

Misuse of leave policies may result in disciplinary action.

Repeated unapproved absences may affect performance evaluations.

The company reserves the right to revoke leave privileges in case of misuse.
